1. Purpose

This Employee Handbook introduces new and existing employees of TCS (Tera Company Service) to the company's mission, values, culture, and the general rules that govern day-to-day conduct in the workplace. It acts as the primary reference document for company-wide employment guidelines and should be read alongside the specific policies referenced within it.

2. Scope

This handbook applies to all full-time, part-time, probationary, and contract employees of TCS across all office locations, including Bengaluru (Head Office), Pune, Hyderabad, and the Noida delivery center, as well as employees working remotely under an approved Work From Home arrangement.

3. Definitions

Employee	Any individual on the payroll of TCS, including probationary and confirmed staff.
Company / TCS	Tera Company Service and its subsidiaries.
Reporting Manager	The immediate supervisor to whom an employee formally reports.
HRBP	Human Resources Business Partner assigned to a department or business unit.

4. Company Overview

TCS (Tera Company Service) is a technology and business services company headquartered in Bengaluru, India, with delivery centers in Pune, Hyderabad, and Noida. Founded in 2011, TCS provides software engineering, cloud consulting, data analytics, and IT managed services to clients across banking, retail, healthcare, and manufacturing sectors. As of the current fiscal year, TCS employs approximately 8,400 people worldwide.

TCS is organized into four business units: Enterprise Software Solutions, Cloud & Infrastructure Services, Data & AI Consulting, and Managed IT Support. Each unit is led by a Vice President who reports to the Chief Executive Officer.

5. Company Values and Culture

TCS's culture is built around five core values that guide how employees are expected to work and make decisions:

- Integrity First — We act honestly and transparently in all dealings with colleagues, clients, and partners.
- Customer Obsession — We prioritize measurable outcomes for the people we serve.
- Ownership — Employees are encouraged to take initiative and see problems through to resolution rather than waiting for direction.
- Continuous Learning — TCS invests in upskilling employees through structured training and certification support (see Training and Learning Policy, TCS-HR-013).
- Respect for People — TCS maintains a workplace free of harassment and discrimination, as detailed in the Code of Conduct (TCS-HR-014).

6. Employee Responsibilities

Every employee at TCS is expected to:

- Perform assigned duties diligently and meet agreed timelines and quality standards.
- Comply with all applicable company policies, including IT, security, and expense policies referenced throughout this handbook.
- Maintain the confidentiality of company and client information at all times, both during and after employment.
- Report to work as per the schedule defined in the Attendance and Working Hours Policy (TCS-HR-003), and apply for leave in advance per the Leave Policy (TCS-HR-002).
- Treat colleagues, clients, and vendors with professionalism and respect.
- Immediately report any suspected policy violation, safety hazard, or security incident to their Reporting Manager or HR.

7. General Workplace Rules

TCS office premises operate under the following general rules:

- Company ID cards must be worn visibly at all times inside office premises.
- Visitors must be registered at the reception desk and escorted by the hosting employee.
- Smoking is permitted only in designated outdoor zones.
- Consumption of alcohol on company premises is prohibited except at officially sanctioned company events.
- Personal belongings should not be left unattended; TCS is not liable for loss of personal property.
- Meeting rooms must be booked through the internal room-booking portal and vacated promptly at the end of the reserved slot.

8. Standard Working Hours

The standard working week at TCS is Monday to Friday, 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM IST, inclusive of a one-hour lunch break, totaling 40 working hours per week. Specific teams supporting international clients may follow shifted hours as communicated by their Reporting Manager. Full details on flexible timing, late arrival, and attendance tracking are covered in the Attendance and Working Hours Policy (TCS-HR-003).

9. Probation Period

All new employees joining TCS, other than those hired at a senior leadership level (Director and above), are subject to a probation period of 6 months from their date of joining. During probation, employees are formally reviewed at the 3-month and 5-month marks by their Reporting Manager and HRBP. Confirmation of employment is communicated in writing following successful completion of probation and satisfactory performance review.

During the probation period, employees are eligible for a reduced Casual Leave allocation (see Leave Policy, Section on Leave Eligibility, TCS-HR-002) and are generally not eligible for Work From Home arrangements except in approved emergency circumstances (see Work From Home Policy, TCS-HR-004). The probation period may be extended by up to 3 months at the discretion of the Reporting Manager and HR in cases where performance requires further evaluation.

10. General Employment Guidelines

Employment with TCS is governed by the individual offer letter and employment agreement signed at the time of joining, together with all company policies in force from time to time. TCS reserves the right to amend, update, or withdraw any policy with reasonable notice to employees, typically communicated via the employee portal and official email.

Notice period for resignation is 60 days for confirmed employees and 30 days during probation, unless a different period is specified in the individual employment contract. TCS may, at its discretion, allow buyout of the notice period.

11. Professional Behavior

Employees are expected to maintain professional decorum in all interactions, including internal meetings, client calls, and written communication such as email and chat. This includes punctuality, appropriate business-casual attire (formal attire for client-facing roles), and constructive conduct during disagreements. Full behavioral expectations, including conflict-of-interest and anti-harassment rules, are detailed in the Code of Conduct (TCS-HR-014).

12. Communication Guidelines

Official communication at TCS is conducted through company-issued email accounts and the approved collaboration tools (Slack workspace and Zoom). Employees should:

- Respond to work emails within one business day, and to urgent client emails as per team-specific SLAs.
- Use professional language in all written communication.
- Avoid sharing confidential company or client information over personal messaging apps.
- Set an out-of-office auto-reply when on approved leave of more than one day.

13. Important HR Contacts

For any HR-related query, employees should first consult their assigned HRBP or raise a ticket through the HR Helpdesk on the employee portal (portal.tcs-internal.com/hr). Escalation contacts are listed in the Contact Information section below.

14. Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What are the company's core values?

A: TCS's five core values are Integrity First, Customer Obsession, Ownership, Continuous Learning, and Respect for People, as described in the Company Values and Culture section.

Q: What are the standard working hours?

A: The standard working hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM IST, Monday to Friday, totaling 40 hours per week. See the Attendance and Working Hours Policy (TCS-HR-003) for details on flexible timing and shift-based schedules.

Q: What is the probation period?

A: The standard probation period is 6 months from the date of joining, with reviews at 3 and 5 months. It may be extended by up to 3 months at management's discretion.

Q: What happens if I take leave without getting approval?

A: Taking leave without prior approval is treated as unauthorized absence under the Attendance and Working Hours Policy (TCS-HR-003) and may result in loss of pay and disciplinary action. Employees must always follow the leave approval procedure described in the Leave Policy (TCS-HR-002) before taking planned leave.

Q: Where can I find my employee policies?

A: All company policies, including this handbook, are published on the employee portal under Policies > HR Documents, accessible at portal.tcs-internal.com/policies.
